

PERPETUAL CHARITY CORPORATION

Perpetual Charity Corporation is raising USD 100 million in equity to finance the largest to date and first charity initial public offering in the history of human kind.

Wall Street, May 25th, 2020

Perpetual Charity Corporation was conceived with the principle of being the first company to integrate three disparate functions: a charity analysis and a charity performance rating agency, a social impact financial company and a source of charity funding. Its overriding principle is to bring transparency to the charity world and thereby facilitate and hopefully increase charitable giving.

Perpetual Charity Corporation openly called upon:

Wall Street Community through a video and a website,

Broadway Community through a video and a website,

Hollywood Community through a video and a website, and

Silicon Valley Community through a video and a website to call attention to its mission and to its initial fundraising.

Perpetual Charity Corporation will offer:

- returns to the investor.
- financing to the most competitive charities.
- integration of charity into the daily course of business.
- free charity analysis of every major charitable organization to help donors decide.
- charity rating agency evaluating every major charitable organization's performance.

Perpetual Charity Corporation focuses on generating a perpetual income stream primarily using real estate assets.

Marc René DESCHENAUX, founder, international legal advisor, Wall Street expert in equities & debt financings focused on IPOs and president of Experts Without Borders, declared:

“I am convinced that Perpetual Charity Corporation will bring full disclosure and transparency to the charity world, will bridge the gap between charity and business, and will be the first integrator of charity as a daily activity of business. Our initial financing will be a USD 100 Million private equity offering followed as quickly as possible by a USD 30 Billion Initial Public Offering on NASDAQ.”

Erica K. Drake, Founder & President of Solaradise Corporation declared: “The brilliant simplicity of PCC’s business model is that it completes the sage, old Chinese Proverb: “Give a man a fish and he will eat for a day. Teach a man to fish and you feed the man for a lifetime.” PCC adds the missing line that turns this judicious lesson into a sustainable, global game-changer... “Now, give the man seed capital to buy a fishing boat and you can feed the whole village for a lifetime!” PCC empowers and challenges everyone to address their own personal responsibility and to seek their part in finding the long-term solutions we need to make our world a better place.”

Andrew R. Fetterman, CEO of Solaradise Corporation said: “Never before has our world needed to find hope as much as we do now. PCC’s business model creates “hope” – not just because it funds charities, but it challenges the financial ecosphere to seek out its own solutions and take responsibility for the world’s challenges. It mixes the beauty of capitalism with the grace of giving and elegantly mixes in the secret ingredient of imagination.”
